Virginia News.

The Alexandria Gazette says: The little two-year-old daughter; of Mrs. Hupp, of Strasburg, who with its mother has been on a short visit to the family of Captain James Iden, of the Virginia Midland railway, in this city, while at the supper-table Friday evening accidentally upset a pot of hot coffee into his lap. Although apparently the child was not fatally injured, only her lower limbs being scalded, she continued to grow worse until yesterday, when death ended her sufferings.

The Gordonsville Gazette says: The announcement that Rev. L. B. Johnston, pastor of the Presbyterian church here, intends to remove to North Carolina, is received by every class of people in our section with unfeigned regret.

Murder in Appomattox.

Rurder in Appomattox.

[Lynchburg Virginian.]

Our regular correspondent, "G.." at Pamplin's, Appomattox county, sends us the following account of a murder committed in that county: Monday night, at Ferguson's store, near the Red House, in this county, a dispute of a personal nature sprung up between J. Baxter Marshall and Joel H. Childry. After leaving the store for home in company with two other young men the quarrel was renewed. The two friends then left them, saying that if they would fight they would not stay to see it, and rode back to the store. Very soon afterward Marshall came in and said that he had killed Childry, and if they would go down the road they would find him. They did so, and found him dead by the roadside, with several deep wounds in the neck and body, made with a pocket-knife. Both are young men, and bore good characters as far as known to your correspondent. Childry was a married man. Marshall is said to be a very excitable and high-tempered man when in liquor, which was doubtless the case last night. Yesterday morning Marshall had made no attempt to escape, and has no doubt been arrested before now." The improvements consist of a DWELLING with thirteen rooms, and a CONSERVATORY, beautifully situated in a large lawn with several hundred fine shade-trees, with flower- and vegetable-gardens adjoining, handsomely laid off and embellished with box-borders, gravel-walks, &c.; also, a KITCHEN with flower- and vegetable-gardens adjoining, handsomely laid off and embellished with hox-borders, gravel-walks, &c.; also, a KITCHEN with flower rooms, DAIRY, OFFICE with three rooms, QUARTERS for hands, LARGE BARNS, HAY-HOUSES, and every out-building which could be desired, and all in complete order. in complete order. Also, FINE APPLE- and PEACH-ORCHARDS, with other fruits and vine-yards in abundance.

While the land was naturally good, yet for the last twenty-four years no skill or expenditure has been spared in the improvement of this farm, and to-day it is undoubtedly under a higher state of fertility than any other farm of its size in this section. Much of the land produced four tons of hay per acre this year. A part of it has been used for trucking purposes for a number of years, and several thousand dollars per annum has been realized in that way, bestdes fine returns from large crops of wheat, hay, oats, and corn.

No description will convey an adequate idea of the great beauty and high state of cultivation of "MONTROSE." It must be seen. To any one who would wish to combine the inducements afforded by the sweet retirement of a country home near the city with perfect healthfulness, surrounded by every comfort and convenience, and withal the possession of a farm which will pay a handsome revenue upon the investment, this is a chance rarely offered in a life-time.

A map of the property may be seen at the office of the auctioneers.

TERIARS: One fourth cash; balance at one, two, three, and four years, with interest payable semi-annually, and title retained by the Court until full payment is made.
